Dear Mr. Gates,

The Student Coalition for Soviet Jewry (SCSJ) was founded in response to the arrest of Anatoly Shcharansky of Moscow on March 15, 1977. Thirteen undergraduates from Brandeis University bought bus tickets to Washington, D.C. to discuss with their Congresspeople and other Federal Agencies the Shcharansky case and others like it in order to get the government actively involved in the issue of Soviet Jewry.

That initial lobbying effort has become an annual event involving students in colleges across the U.S. The SCSJ Twelfth Annual Washington Lobby for Soviet Jewry (1988) will include approximately 800 student lobbyists from 36 states and 160 congressional districts. Because of our large number of students, we are able to expand our lobbying efforts to reach many Federal agencies and embassies.

We hope that your office will be able to take some time on February 25th to meet with students to discuss the vital issue of Soviet Jewry. Please notify us at the National Lobby Coordinating Center at Brandeis University as soon as possible to schedule an appointment for the 25th.

Thank You,

Sharon Young
